Nancy Wynne Sees Smart Furs—The Supper Club to Be a Dinner Club, Too—Red Cross Auxiliary Has Representative Officers

I SAW Mrs. Sam Chase on Chestnut street yesterday wearing the most beautiful deep cape and stole of gray squirrel I have seen for many a day.

She had one of the wide, upturned, soft-brimmed hats of black velvet, so much in vogue now, and a dark blue broadcloth coat suit. The cape was very wide, falling to the waist line in the back and the front was finished with two straight stole ends, about to the knee.

Mrs. Chase was Sue Bruce, you know, a daughter of the late Mr. Arthur Bruce of Germantown, and a niece of Mrs. Alfred Norris, of New York and this city.

THE committee of the Supper Club (you know the club which has been meeting at the Bellevue and which is to be resumed this year) had a meeting the other day and it was planned to start the club earlier in the evening and have it a dinner dance and have the closing at 11 o'clock.

This will not eliminate the supper dance, if persons prefer to go later and have supper instead of dinner, but it simply means that if you are not going to the theatre and want to dance, you can go at seven-thirty or perhaps earlier, the exact hours have not been laid down, and go home by eleven.

THE club will start on November 22 this year, you know. I am so glad it has been taken up again. It was always such fun!

SEVENTY-FIVE men went on the weekly hike with Mr. Albert Cooke Myers on Sunday, and, of course, they went the rounds of the customary walk, ending up with a swim in the pool at the Y. M. C. A. and supper at the Young Friends' Association at Fifteenth and Cherry street.

George Allen, Inc. 1214—Chestnut Street—1214 Just Received an Importation of Allen's French Hairnets $1.00 Dozen The numbers of our customers who were unable to purchase these French Hairnets during the last week or so will be glad to know that we can now fully supply their needs; every shade now in the "Slippon" Cap Shape Hairnets in both small and large sizes. "Import Special" Straight Nets in extra large size. We are especially pleased with this importation, as they are superior to any we have received during the war; in fact they are now back to the old original quality. The price is still the same, although they cost considerably more to import and we cannot say how long the present price will continue, as we can only order them subject to prevailing prices abroad. We guarantee the quality; each net to be perfect and to give reasonable wear or we will cheerfully replace them. Still 10c Each; $1.00 Dozen White and Grey Hairnets In both shapes are 15c each; $1.50 Dozen
